C - Average age 43	D – Average age 50 years
E - Average age 55 years	F - Average age 60 years
G - Average age 65 years	H - Average age 70 years
I -Average age 75 years	J – Average age 80 years
AX – see item **

 Special starting regulations: Rowers are entitled to start in category AX if they do not yet fall into one of the official Masters age categories, and if, in addition, they are not part of an official national rowing cadre and have not been racing in a national or international regatta over the distance of 2000m during the current year. This category is in particular indicated for Men and Women as well as for students who do not (or no longer) pertain to any national racing cadre.

16.2 To hold a race, a minimum of two participants from two different clubs is required no matter whether these are of the same age category (e.g. A+A; no handicap) or from two different age categories out of not more than three adjacent age categories (e.g. A+B or A+C or B+C; handicaps will be applied at the start according to item 16.3 of the table below).

In case of a single entry in one particular boat class/age category, races may combined with a younger age category race of the same boat class as long as not more than three adjacent age categories are involved and no additional heat will be required..

On principle, each single entry may be combined with other age categories as long as the competitors of the race are within a range of not more than 3 age categories and, in particular, if no additional heat will be created. This will e.g make it possible to race 4 A boats in a category A race together with 1 C boat with adequate handicaps at the start.

When racing an age category together with up to three adjacent age categories handicaps will have to be used at the start as shown in the table below.

16.3 Table of Handicaps (handicaps in seconds for the distance of 1000 m); the time differences in the table refer to adjacent age categories for races over a distance of 1000m. Handicaps for more distant age categories are calculated by adding up all relevant individual handicaps.

16.3. Handicap timetable (timeprojection in seconds for the 1000m range)

Age categorie	A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	I	J
Boat categorie
8+	0,0	2,0	3,0	4,0	5,0	6,0	7,0	8,0	9,0	10,0
2x / 4+ / 4-	0,0	2,0	4,0	5,0	6,0	7,0	8,0	9,0	10,0	12,0
1x	0,0	2,0	4,0	6,0	7,0	8,0	9,0	10,0	11,0	13,0

16.4 Should a Starter decide for a false start this will not necessarily lead to an interruption of the race. However, a penalty of ten seconds will be imposed upon the crew who had caused the false start.

Deadline: Wednesday, 6. June 2018, 18 Uhr

System of Progression

JM-B, JW-B, JM14, JW14

All races will be set up on Saturday by random draw and, if required split into divisional medal races (or non medal preliminaries). In case of more than 18 entries for a race, progression to the finals may take place by individual time trials. The exact mode of progression will be defined in the System of Progression and communicated together with the List of Entries after the Close of Entries. The Saturday races are considered qualification races for the Sunday races. The divisional races on Sunday will be seeded by the Jury in accordance with the rankings obtained in the Saturday races. Participants who have not been racing on Saturday or have not reached the finish line on Saturday will be seeded into the last group of the Sunday races.

M, W, JM-A, JW-A:

All races will be rowed with preliminaries and finals on both days. In case of more than 18 entries for a race, individual time trials may be held for progression into the finals. All finals will be rowed.

The starting order of the races will be in accordance with the currently valid FISA World Championship Rules. In case of less than 6 but not less than 3 boats per heat, a preliminary race will have to be rowed for the allocation of lanes.
